Sean – Tree Trust Participant

This summer marked Sean's second year with the Tree Trust Summer Youth Employment Program, and his growth was evident in his unwavering work ethic. Despite facing numerous challenges, Sean's determination never wavered. Whether the task was difficult or tedious, Sean tackled it head-on to get the job done.

As the youngest crew member, Sean had to prove himself, and he did so with remarkable resilience. He emerged as a leader, inspiring his peers with his dedication and perseverance. His Crew Leader noted, "He was a leader for the rest of the crew, going above and beyond to achieve success." His efforts were recognized with a Perfect Attendance Award and the prestigious Governor's Award, highlighting his exceptional contributions.
